

Celebration To Provide Burst Of Nostalgia

The Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept. is again planning a spectacular weekend festival to celebrate the Fourth of July.

The weekend will begin on Thursday, July 3, at 7 p.m. in Williams Park when the annual Miss Antioch Pageant gets underway. Some of the gentlemen attending this event may be disappointed to learn that the traditional swimsuit competition has been dropped this year. The young ladies will model gowns and sports wear, though.

An addition to the Thursday festivities this year will be the Little Miss Pageant, held in conjunction with the Miss Antioch competition. Featured in the Little Miss contest will be girls between the ages of six and eight who will model play clothes and party dresses.

After the winners in the pageants have been crowned, entertainment will be provided by Ernie Levas and EPLExpress.

The celebration will pick up again on the morning of Friday, July 4, at 10 a.m. with the traditional parade up Main St. to Williams Park. Immediately after the parade, the parks and recreation department's tumbling troop, Body Electrix, will perform in the park.

At noon, Bernie Gunty and the New Pep-tones will perform music for all ages. Following that at 1 p.m., the traditional favorite, firemen's waterfights will begin.

Variety in entertainment will be the hallmark of the day as The Urge, a group that performs popular music from the 50's all the way up to the 80's, begins its performance at 2:30 p.m.

The rest of the daylight hours will be devoted to T-ball games for the youngsters and a horseshoe tournament for the more mature in the crowd.

At dusk, the fireworks show will begin, after which, Ernie Levas and EPLExpress will again perform beginning at 9 p.m. for the dancing pleasure of everyone in attendance.

Throughout the day there will be food, soft drink, and beer booths around so that the whole family can make a day of it in one place.

Glenda Tomaschtk, director of the parks and recreation department, could still use some extra help for the booths and to assist in coordinating the activities of the day. Anyone who is interested in helping make the day a success should call Tomaschtk at (312) 395-2160.

The Antioch Fourth of July celebration has traditionally been one of the biggest and most extravagant in the area. Village officials are looking for this year's celebration to be one of the best ever.

Sold To The Highest Bidder

The Exchange Club of Antioch auctioned off 42 items at its first annual Exchange Festival held at St. Peter's Social Center on June 21. The item which brought the most money was a Hitachi VCR donated by the State Bank of Antioch. It sold for $260.

Fern Watson, Beloved Teacher Dies At 87

Fern Lux Watson, popular teacher in the Antioch school system for 32 years, is dead at the age of 87. She passed away on June 21 at Kenosha Memorial Hospital.

Watson was born on Feb. 28, 1899 on a farm near Pittsfield, Ill. She was the daughter of the late William and Sarah Dunham. She had lived in the Antioch area since 1920.

An active member of the United Methodist Church, Watson served in many leadership roles for the church for many years. She played an active role in almost every aspect of community life in Antioch: member of the Order of the Eastern Star Chapter 428 for over 60 years and a past matron of same; member and past president of the Antioch Women's Club; life member of the Lakes Region Historical Society; member of AARP and the National Teacher's Assn.; and the first Woman V.I.P. of Antioch in 1974.

Watson was also an active member of the Delta Kappa Gamma Sorority for teachers.

Her teaching career included stints as a teacher at Washington School in Waukegan for four years and as a substitute and remedial reading teacher in Silver Lake.

For most Antioch residents, though, she will be remembered as the beloved first grade teach who taught two generations how to read and write during their formative years.

Rev. Stephen Williams presided over funeral services at the United Methodist Church of Antioch on June 24. The Order of the Eastern Star held a memorial service on June 23 at Strang Funeral Home. Interment was at Hillside Cemetery in Antioch.

Friends desiring to make contributions should make them in Watson's name either to the United Methodist Church of Antioch or to the Lakes Region Historical Society in her memory.

Sign Up For Little Miss

Glenda Tomaschtk, director of the Antioch Parks and Recreation Dept., has announced that there will be a Little Miss Pageant in conjunction with the Miss Antioch Pageant to be held July 3 at Williams Park.

In order to participate, girls must: be between the ages of six and eight before July 4; live in the 395 telephone prefix area of Antioch Twp.; and have received no expense money for modeling.

The girls will model a wardrobe of play clothes and a party dress. A rehearsal will be held on July 2 and an interview with the judges will be conducted at 5 p.m. before the pageant on July 3.

Registrations are being accepted now at the parks and recreation department at the Antioch Village Hall. For further information, call Glenda Tomaschtk at (312) 395-2160.

Historical Society Plans Open House On July 4

The Lakes Region Historical Society is again planning an Independence Day Open House on Friday, July 4, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the society's museum, located on the corner of Depot and Main Sts. in Antioch.

Items from the society's collection will be on display and members of the society will be on hand to accept donations and take memberships. A white elephant sale is being planned and gift shop items will be available. Refreshments will be served.

While much progress has been made on the restoration of the building, erected in 1892, much still needs to be done in preparation for its formal opening. Walter Shepard and his restoration crew will have sign-up sheets out for volunteers.

Anyone who has questions about the society or is interested in getting involved is invited to attend the next regular meeting of the society on Thursday, June 26, at 7:30 p.m.

in the Brook Room of the State Bank of Antioch. Members are reminded that donations of cookies will be needed for the open house.

Swim Team Hosts Meet

The Antioch Swim Team, sponsored by the State Bank of Antioch, will host an invitational swim meet on July 13 at 9 a.m. til noon. The Antioch Team will compete against swim teams from Libertyville, Lake Bluff, Waukegan Park Dist. and Brentwood Swim Club, Wgkn. The invitational will be held at the Williams Park Pool. Come watch the Antioch swimmers compete and then later that morning visit the Antioch Chamber's Arts and Crafts Fair, also at Williams Park.

Belmont Donates $26,374 To Antioch School Dists.

At the regular meeting of the Antioch Community High School Board of Education on June 19, the board approved the joint developers agreement between Belmont Construction Co., (Antioch Manor North), Dist. 34, and Dist. 117 which will generate a contribution to the schools in the amount of $26,374.44 in lieu of a land contribution.

Bill Merzlicker and Jackie Parkman, board members of the Lindenhurst Youth Soccer Club, presented the board with a check for $2,000 to be used for improvements at Polley Field. The money will probably be used on the water distribution system to water the soccer fields.

The board also approved the employment of Christina D. Lindberg as a vocal music teacher to replace Ralph Brooke, who retired at the end of the 1985-86 school year. Also concerning personnel, the board approved the employment of Carlene Lois as a part-time Spanish teacher.

Approval was made to continue the practice of providing complimentary passes for school activities for 1986-87 so that any senior citizens, who are residents of Dist. 117, may attend free by applying for a pass for 1986-87 in the fall. Since 1969, 531 such passes have been issued.

Supt. Gary Allen reported that Antioch Community High School was one of two Lake County high schools selected for possible state funding to develop an Alternative School Program. Basically, the program would be directed at preventing students from getting into academic and attendance difficulties. The board approved the program and the employment of a counselor/teacher to implement it.

Other board action included: approval that the law firm of Gottlieb and Schwartz with the proviso that Michael Loizzi remain as our representative, be the school's legal representatives; approved continued of membership in the Illinois School Board Assn. and North Central Assn. of Colleges and Schools.

Principal Arthur Blecke reported on plans to implement one way traffic in the east parking lot during school starting and ending times for next school year. All traffic will enter from the north (Bishop St.) and exit on the south. (Hwy. 173).

Bid Farewell To Reverend

A farewell open house will be held for Rev. and Mrs. Stephen W. Williams on Sunday, June 29, 2-4 p.m. in Wesley Hall of the United Methodist Church of Antioch, 848 Main St., Antioch.

Rev. Williams has served as pastor of the Antioch church since 1973 and will now be the senior pastor at the First United Methodist Church of Plainfield.

He and his wife, Jo, who has taught first grade at the Antioch Lower Grade School, have been involved in many community and ecumenical activities. The church members wish to invite all their friends to come and with them "Godspeed."

Rebekah Lodge Proclaims Friendship Week In June

Realizing the importance of promoting "Friendship" throughout the world, the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in North America, South America, Europe and Austral-Asia are observing the week of June 22 to 28 as "International Week of Friendship."

During the regular meeting of Lakeside No. 82, Rebekah Lodge on June 18 in Antioch, the proclamation by Sovereign Grand Master

George E. Shaw of Marlboro, Massachusetts, directed the observance of "International Week of Friendship" throughout the world of Odd Fellowship, and that all members of the international brotherhood should join together in acts of friendship to promote a better understanding among the people of all nations.

"Odd Fellows and Rebekahs are proud to join with civic and government officials in observing this special week," stated March Katoch noble grand of the local lodge.

As 1986 has been designated the "International Year of Peace" by the United Nations, the international leader of Odd Fellowship has encouraged the membership to promote peace and understanding with a demonstration of "Friendship."

'Lovers' Red Hot Hit

by GLORIA DAVIS

Anyone who is at the age that feels silly in a singles bar will completely enjoy the production of "The Last of the Red-Hot Lovers" being done at the Riptides Restaurant Luncheon(sometimes dinner)/Theater in McHenry.

Four Star Productions, the group that is supplying all the "mature" chuckles, features four of the Lakeland area's finest actors in a show that depicts the trauma's of the male mid-life crisis through an interpretation of a masterful script that retains its Broadway and Hollywood comedic polish.

Lou Lanciloti, the overage would-be Romeo, does a great job with a great part. His is a completely believable conception, shy and nervous at some points, unbelievably funny at others.

The three ladies he unsuccessfully tries to seduce in his search for relief from a middle-age life's doldrums, each do a superb job.

Anyone who is acquainted with the Lakeland theatrical scene has come to expect the best from such competent actresses as Ann-Marie Cina, Yvonne Alton and Lillian Allen.

Cina's oversexed middle-aged lady, who is also sneaking out on a spouse, is well-done as is Allen's "Mrs. Depression of 1986."

But the one that drew the biggest laughs was Alton's crazy would-be actress. The scene where she talks Lanciloti into joining her in some illegal cigarette imbibing is a priceless one.

Stage Review

The personalities run such a varied gamut and the innate funniness of the script, that has a plot all too familiar to most people that have celebrated their 40 birthday, is all the more laughable because the audience can really identify with the emotions of the play's characters.

Everybody's timing is fantastic and those leaving the theater without a smile on their face should be few and far between.

The show is being presented for luncheon audiences and for groups by special reservation. For more information call Riptides, (815) 385-5523.

AUDITIONS GOLDEN GOOSE JULY 1&2 7PM

Set 'Golden Goose' Tryouts

Apartments Are Coming To Grayslake Open House

A building once used for such varied events as basketball games to movies and plays will once again have a new life in July.

The historic Grayslake Opera House, the center of the Grayslake area's entertainment for the first half of the 20th century will become home to five apartment units on the third floor.

"That's where most of the entertainment in town was," Alta Nevell, a lifetime Grayslake resident, said.

Nevell said she can recall horse and buggy days when Opera House patrons would either hitch their horses to posts in front of the building or leave them in back.

Movies were shown at the building, basketball games played on the gym floor and traveling plays would entertain local residents.

"I remember when a group performed 'Uncle Tom's Cabin' there. My father would not let us go see it because he was afraid of the crowds," Nevell recalled.

The firemen's masquerade ball was an annual event held at the Opera House.

Nevell said a curtain once contained advertisements of years ago.

For the future, Tibor Varga is the builder of the units which could be ready by July 1.

Varga said the outside of the building will not be changed.

Grayslake Building Commissioner Walt Stang said

plans were made official when a variance was granted Feb. 4.

County Artists Take Top Regional Art Show Prizes

The annual regional Town and Country Art Show was held in Oak Brook on June 7. The regional show is an invitational show for blue ribbon winners of northern Illinois county shows held earlier this spring. Twenty Lake County artists qualified to show on the regional level. Of this number, 15 showed, receiving a total of 13 blue and six red ribbons on their work.

Lois Hrejsa, instructor at the Art Institute, Chicago, judged the 54 entries.

watercolor; Mary Mooney, Mundelein, "Beach Party," watercolor; Pearl Pederson, McHenry, "Poncho," Navajo weaving; and Crystal Plummer, Ingleside, "Carved Bowl," ceramics.

Red ribbon winners from Lake County were: Shirley Grego, Antioch, "Raggety Ann," oil painting; Bill Jackel, Mundelein, "3 of a Kind," photo; Shirley Konen, Spring Grove, "Lion's Teeth," oil painting; Paula Kuehl, Lake Zurich,

"The Girls," oil painting; Darlene Snetsinger, Lake Zurich, "Country Lane," oil painting and Darlene Snetsinger for her "Serenity," oil painting.

Blue ribbon winners from the regional art show are eligible to enter the State Town & Country Art Show to be held in Champaign/Urbana in September.

League Offers Artists Opportunity

A calendar featuring reproductions of local artists' work is being planned by the Lake County Art League, Lake County Press and the local public relations Communication Services.

Lake County artists can submit artworks suitable for a calendar reproduction on Saturday, July 19, at Layson Productions Unlimited, 622 North Ave., Waukegan before 4 p.m. Works can be picked up after 7 p.m. that same day.

Artists will be awarded $70 for each work used in the calendar. This fee is for a one-time reproduction rights. Each artist is limited to three submissions. Submissions should be horizontal with an approximate four by five inch proportion.

"This calendar will promote the fine artists in Lake County," says project coordinator Sue Morris of Communication Services. "Instead of buying mass produced calendars, local businesses will have an opportunity to use this unique calendar as a gift for clients or employees."

Lake County Press has a tradition of printing a four-color high quality calendar for clients and employees according to owner Bill Clay. By underwriting the initial expenses, the printing company has lowered the cost for the calendars to other groups. In addition to promoting local artist, this project will serve as a fundraising project for the art league.

For more information on the Lake County artists' calendar, call Sue Morris at (312) 249-0490. For details on submitting artworks or questions on the art league, call the league President Malcolm Layson at Layson Productions, (312) 662-1778.

Reschedule Meeting

CLC To Show Hanson's Work

The works of Chicago imagist, Philip Hanson, will be featured in an exhibit at the Community Gallery of Art at the College of Lake County in Grayslake.

The exhibit, titled "Philip Hanson: Works from 1968-1985," is part of the Illinois Arts Council Visual Arts Touring Program and is scheduled for the CLC Gallery from Monday, July 14, through Thursday, Aug. 7.

Located in the college's learning resource center, the gallery is open from 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

The exhibit is a 17-year review of Hanson's work. A seminal figure in the Chicago Imagist Movement, he is known for painted sculptural objects and cloth constructions as well as paintings. There are nearly 30 works of art in the traveling exhibit, which emphasizes Hanson's exceptional attention to detail and perfection of finish.

Often called romantically inspired, Hanson's works have been displayed in Brazil, Austria, and England as well as the United States.

The Lake Forest Symphony has announced the program and soloists for the annual July Fourth Concert-on-the-Green.

Victor Aitay, conductor, will be joined by virtuoso trumpet player Nick Drozdoff and baritone Robert Smith in a program including America's favorite patriotic music, topped off with the "1812 Overture" and a medley of musical Americana.

Drozdoff, a resident of Lake Bluff, has been hailed as one of today's finest trumpet players. He achieved critical acclaim as lead trumpet with the Maynard Ferguson Orchestra on a world tour, and has performed with many of the country's best-known entertainers, including Sammy Davis, Jr., Melissa Manchester, John Denver, Diahann Carroll and Liberace.

Baritone Smith is well-known to Lake Forest audiences. His performances with the Lake Forest Symphony include three appearances at the Concert-on-the-Green, the 1984 "Gershwin to Bernstein" pops concert and this season's performance of Handel's "Messiah."

Don Shelton, of Lake Forest, makes a special appearance as guest conductor.

The concert will be held on the Deer Path School campus. General admission tickets are priced at $6 for adults and $2 for children under 12. Reserved seats at tables are $12 for adults and $6 for children. Regular reserved seats are priced at $10 for adults and $5 for children.

Cuba Twp. Vote Lifts Reindl Over Wilson

Precinct committeemen in Dist. 6 voted at a special GOP convention to put John P. Reindl on the Nov. 4 ballot replacing Glenn E. Miller, who died suddenly June 7 from heart failure.

Reindle, who has been chairman of the Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals for the past three years, defeated incumbent Pat Wilson 2,031-1,411 for the open spot on the ballot.

Both men were unsuccessful at the polls during the March primary, losing to Miller and Ela Twp.'s Bruce Hansen.

Wilson will have served on the Lake County Board for four years. The ballot will now include Republicans Hansen and Reindl, and Democrats Peter Suk and Virginia Krueger. Two will be elected to four-year terms.

In the special vote, Wilson was shut out in Cuba Twp. Reindl received 667 votes to Wilson's none. The rest of the individual township votes were fairly close: Ela Twp.-Reindl (430), Wilson (331); Fremont Twp.-Reindl (573), Wilson (457); Libertyville Twp.-Wilson (289), Reindl (64); Vernon Twp.-Wilson (107), Reindl (102); and Wauconda Twp.-Wilson (227), Reindl (195).

All committeemen from Fremont Twp. were present for the vote. The worst showing came out of Wauconda Twp., where there were more absent than there were present. Those absent included Lake County Clerk Candidate in the primary, Venita McConnel.

County Board member C. Richard Anderson gave the nominating speech for Reindle, while Mundelein Mayor Colin McRae spoke in favor of Wilson.

Nominating Speech

Mundelein Mayor Colin McRae gives a nominating speech in favor of Pat Wilson at a special GOP convention for the purpose of filling a Dist. 6 vacancy left on the Lake County Board by Glenn Miller. Wilson, who lost his bid for reelection in the spring primary, was defeated by Fremont Twp. Committeeman John P. Reindl in the special vote. Reindl will now join Ela Twp. Committeeman Bruce Hansen on the ballot in November for the county board. (Background from left)- Dist. 6 Rep. Postal Service Changes Structure

A "new" U.S. Postal Service, nationally reorganized and committed to improving its responsiveness to customers' needs, has opened its doors at post offices across the nation, according to Charles L. Caton, field division general manager/postmaster of the newly-formed North Suburban Division.

"A great deal of the responsibility and decision-making authority for operating the Postal Service has been shifted from the national headquarters in Washington, D.C. and the five regional headquarters to the local division," Caton said.

Organizationally, the North Suburban Division, with headquarters in the North Suburban Facility in River Grove, is one of 74 new divisions created nationwide that have but one mandate: "To serve the customer better."

Caton said that the recent reorganization of the Postal Service management structure "gives me and my local managers the control and flexibility we need to solve problems and meet service needs quickly, without getting higher approval."

As field division general manager/postmaster, Caton directs postal operations at 236 post offices located in all or part of 20 northern Illinois counties. He is responsible for the performance of more than 10,000 postal employees, including nearly 3,000 at the North Suburban facility.

Several visible initiatives have been started, or will be on line in the coming months, that demonstrate the Postal Service's new responsiveness to its customers, he said.

"For example, listening to our customers' needs already has resulted in extending retail hours one or more days a week at 15 of our post offices, so people can do business with us more conveniently," he said. "We are continuing to conduct studies, particularly in areas where working couples are the rule, to determine where the need for extended hours is evident. We will extend service hours where necessary."

He said convenience is a big word in the new Postal Service. "You can see it on street corners throughout the country, where thousands of new Express Mail Service collection boxes have been installed. We have ordered 190 for this division, and 112 already are in place."

Caton added that the public also can see improved service in post office lobbies, where vending equipment and computerized retail equipment are being added.

IRS Cautions Taxpayers

According to the Internal Revenue Service, (IRS), there is a real modern day siren song that has become progressively louder over the past few years. That is the siren song heard from promoters marketing abusive tax shelters. Persons across the USA have been lured by this provocative sound and received more than they bargained for.

The IRS suggests that taxpayers who are being induced into investing in an abusive tax shelter use caution. To identify a possible abusive tax shelter investment, potential investors should listen for key phrases used by many of the promoters: buy wholesale and claim tax benefits at retail; overvaluation of assets for charitable contributions; lithograph and master recordings; permanently avoid paying taxes; claim additional refunds from prior year returns; and inflate your losses and deductions. These are just a few of an endless list of key phrases where there may be potential for an abusive tax shelter investment.

The risk to taxpayers investing in an abusive tax shelter scheme is often significant. Not only does the investor waste money in fees or costs paid to the person marketing the shelter, which can be substantial, but the risk of losing the investment is also great. Additionally, if the IRS determines that a taxpayer has used an abusive tax shelter scheme to avoid paying legitimate income taxes, the taxpayer may be facing substantial penalties.

Potential investors in abusive tax shelters should carefully consider the adverse consequences. Investors can be assessed a penalty of 10 percent of the amount of underpayment of taxes resulting from the shelter, interest on the underpayment, in addition to negligence or fraud penalties.

The IRS cautions that careful consideration should be given to the marketing schemes to determine if the investment will return a reasonable profit or if the sole purpose of the investment is to avoid paying income taxes. If there is a doubt about the legitimacy of a tax shelter scheme, advice should be sought from a competent tax consultant, CPA or attorney.

Mortgage Processing Delays Spark Controversy

The red hot mortgage market is turning into a hot potato for the mortgage banking industry.

Angered by mortgage-processing delays and alleged rate gouging and fee churning, thousands of irate home-loan applicants in Illinois, Maryland, and Massachusetts are filing protests with state regulatory agencies and state attorneys general.

The problem stems from the magical single-digit interest rates seen earlier this year, which created an avalanche that buried appraisal, survey and credit companies.

The Mortgage Bankers Assn. of America (MBA) estimates that up to 350,000 home-loan applications are in the pipeline. Forty-five day and 60-day loan commitments have expired on hundreds of millions of dollars in mortgage applications, and closing dates are being postponed. The MBA says it may take up to four months to process a mortgage if a borrower applied today.

As a result of processing delays, consumers are losing out on their "locked-in" low interest rates, and may end up paying higher rates and more points because interest charges have increased in the last few months.

Lenders often give borrowers the option of locking-in their interest rates or allowing them to float during the mortgage processing period," said Susan P. McHugh, Massachusetts assistant attorney general.

The Meyers Report

Economic forecaster Gary S. Meyers has been a lecturer and consultant to major financial institutions government analysts, real estate developers and daily newspapers throughout the nation for the past 16 years. Readers are invited to submit comments and questions for possible use as subjects for future columns. Write Gary S. Meyers & Associates, Ltd., 20 W. Hubbard, Chicago, IL 60610.

Massachusetts took action. "So when the lender offers the lock-in as part of his sales pitch, and the commitment expires because of the lender's processing delays, we require the lender to provide what the borrower bought—the locked-in rate," said McHugh.

"Illinois borrowers have urged the attorney general's office to investigate processing delays, which are causing mortgage-rate commitments to expire before deals can be closed," said Michael Healy, an Illinois assistant attorney general.

"Some mortgage brokers may have bitten off more than they can chew. Others deliberately may have taken more applications than they could process," said Michael Kelly, another assistant attorney general for Illinois.

Warren Lasko, executive vice president of the MBA, said the attorney general of Massachusetts and the State Bank Commissioner in Maryland recently ordered lenders to honor their commitments.

"The controversy could spark a Congressional investigation into the mortgage banking business," said Lasko.

"There is a problem, and there is no easy answer," Lasko said. "We are advising lenders to stop locking in rates, and if they do, to make their commitments for 90 or 120 days."

Mortgage companies say that in most cases the delays are not their fault. Those firms that we contacted offered to cancel loan applications, refund unspent fees, and turn over completed credit report, survey and appraisal papers to the borrowers.

"We aren't the bad guys," said Michael Allen, president of Crown Mortgage Co., based in Oak Lawn, Ill. "Closings are delayed because of red tape."

Today, appraisals take five to ten weeks, compared with two weeks in a normal housing market, lenders said. A credit report, usually issued in 10 days, now takes five weeks. A property survey takes six weeks rather than one week.

Borrowers complain that lenders are letting rate commitments expire, then are jacking up rates to reflect today's 10.75 percent interest levels—perhaps one to two percentage points higher than when the commitment was made.

However, sources reported that many savings and loan associations are routinely extending loan commitments to borrowers who locked-in rates. The S&Ls are holding rates and points steady until those loans close.

Sources said S&Ls are more sensitive to borrowers' needs because they want to maintain a good customer relationship through servicing the loans.

Although some mortgage companies service customer loans, many loan brokers prefer to make loans, then sell them to investors in the secondary mortgage market.

"Credit bureaus and appraisal firms are causing the problems," said Frank Aiello, branch manager of Sun Mortgage Co., Hinsdale, Ill. "If we extend the commitment at the original interest rate we would lose money" if rates have gone up.

"Mortgage companies don't have to guarantee rates," said Bill Silverthorn, of Indian Tower Mortgage, based in South Bend, Ind. "My company is taking a hard line. It doesn't want to go under water on these loans. We are at the mercy of the appraisers."

"You have to have sympathy for borrowers if the delay wasn't their fault," said Bob Brunner, executive vice president of Talman-Home Mortgage, a subsidiary of a major Chicago S&L.

For borrowers who applied for locked-in rates, Brunner said Talman-Home is extending existing 60-day commitments to borrowers for up to 30 additional days.

"Sixty-day commitments just aren't working. We've started issuing 75-day commitments," Brunner said. "There is some risk, but we are trying to close our loans without hurting the customer. After all, we're married to our borrowers for up to 30 years."

Other states should follow the lead of Maryland and Massachusetts. Lenders are in business. Like other businesses, they are responsible for controlling their own costs. When they commit to sell a product at a set price, they should deliver.

Andersons Celebrate Anniversary

Jack and Diane Anderson of Red Carpet/Wesley Realty in Wauconda have returned from Hawaii, where they were among Red Carpet Corporation of America franchisees from throughout the U.S. attending the company's 20th anniversary convention.

The convention, at the Hyatt Regency Waikiki in Honolulu, combined a gala 20th birthday bash for the nation's first full-service real estate franchise chain with the unveiling of revitalization plans for the next 20 years.

Red Carpet, founded in 1966, pioneered the concept of real estate franchising.

Last year, 95 percent ownership was acquired by Guild Mortgage Company—and does not represent all the residents of Arbor Vista," but I would have to say 165 signatures is a good start. Continuing, Mr. May said "the committee resisted any discussion of our present schools with anyone knowledgeable about the schools." May was asked to confer and help the Arbor Vista School Committee gather facts during July 1985. He refused to participate. During publicly held Arbor Vista Assn. meetings in January and February, 1986, May was invited to present an accurate and factual counter-presentation to the school committee information that had been gathered and presented, but he declined. All he tried to do at those meetings was give generalizations and belittle the information gathered by the committee.

Continuing with May's charges in your paper, he went on to say "he hopes that many of them will reconsider and remove their names until a bonafide objective study or evaluation of all four schools is provided." I would like to know of a more potentially objective study than the one completed by the Arbor Vista School Committee. How long does May expect residents to wait? Or is he stalling for time with the hope that the issue will die? Perhaps the charge I like best from May is when he said a number of the school committee members are new to the area and therefore unfamiliar with the schools. When you move into Warren Twp., you get familiar with the school system real fast. Most of us have friends with children in school systems throughout the Chicago area and the U.S. It does not take long to compare notes with other parents regarding strong points and shortcomings of various school systems.

When May wonders "where did they find time to conduct an evaluation of four separate school districts," I must remind him that the Arbor Vista School Committee is composed of at least 15 individuals who have spend a great deal of time since July 1985, assuring that they gathered facts objectively and accurately. Among its members are several people who have professional credentials in education. I would like to know if May has a committee and the credentials it could display.

In short, I wonder if May is not trying to be a "big fish in a small pond," or maybe the ego is still bruised by the fact that Warren Twp. voters did not return him to the WTHS board last fall.

Seek Opportunities For Young Workers

Thirty-five eager students currently make up the pool of available workers with Summer Jobs '86, according to Julie VerHagen, who is staffing this summer personnel service for the Foundation of the Private Industry Council of Lake County.

These young people are seeking employment and are available for interview by Lake County employers.

"Summer help is needed in most companies at this time of year, with regular employees taking vacations," comments Bill Behrens, a retired Abbott Laboratories executive who is coor-inating this placement service.

He continues, "When you hire a youth, you are providing the opportunity to learn and earn. In return you can expect to have an eager young worker who will gladly do the tasks assigned as quickly as possible, and when accustomed to the routine, will often ask for more tasks to perform."

Behrens concludes, "Most youth have incredible energy and need to be busy in productive activities."

Summer Jobs '86 will screen the young people to find a close match to the needs of their business and arrange interviews for them. Call Julie at (312) 249-2200, ext. 51.

Litwiler Rejects Hess' Debate Invitation

Donna Mae Litwiler, Republican nominee for Lake County clerk, rejected an invitation to discuss election issues with her Democratic opponent, declaring 'she intends to "disclose" instead of debate.

Litwiler replied to the invitation extended by incumbent County Clerk Linda Hess with a letter that was distributed to media outlets Monday, June 23.

The feisty little GOP candidate labeled Hess' public invitation to debate a political move "rather than an honest effort to attempt to inform the voters."

"I will not need a series of six debates with my opponent to apprise the voters of the the duties of the office," Litwiler declared.

The Ingelside resident called irregularities in the clerk's office "not a proper subject of debate. It is a subject of disclosure." Litwiler added that "our paths will cross in several public forums."

Opponent Says Mickey Runs 'Chicago Style'

by JOHN STEINKE

Sheriff Robert H. "Mickey" Babcox is the smartest politician in Lake County today. Outside of my late Grandfather, Babcox has forgotten more politics than most of us will ever know. In 1952, the youthful Babcox defeated the appointed incumbent John "Paddy" White for coroner. White had the support of regular Republican organization. Thirty years later, Babcox defeated the discredited incumbent Tom Brown for the sheriff's nomination with the party's endorsement. In November 1982, GOP Babcox beat the unqualified Democrat, Don Mason, in the sheriff's race by only 10,196 out of 111,706 ballots cast in the election.

This year, Sheriff Babcox is seeking reelection for a second-term against Democrat Sander Stagman of Highland Park in the Nov. 4 election. Stagman is a political novice with strong law enforcement credentials. Recently, I had a conversation with Stagman on his candidacy. He is prepared to spend $50,000 in his campaign to unseat Babcox. Once, Mickey told me that a wise politician doesn't denounce his opponent until his adversary attacks him. Well, "Mick," you had better lock and load one round of ammo. Following our talk, Stagman dispatched a letter to me castigating you for machine politics, indifference to corruption and unprofessionalism in office. Fire at will, Sheriff! Here are excerpts from Stagman's correspondence:

"The intensified efforts of the current sheriff to monopolize power is turning Lake County into a 'Hazard County'...Presently, state and federal police will not confide in the Lake County Sheriff. This point is proven by the fact that past drug and gambling investigations as well as investigations into organized crime (have) excluded the Lake County Sheriff. Gambling and drugs are referred to as protected industries. Why have there been no investigations into drug running or illegal gambling in Lake County by Sheriff? In the light of convictions of so many close associates of the sheriff, the answer is quite clear. The interest to protect the community is not there.

"...I met an officer of a local police force who just laughed when the sheriff of Lake County was mentioned. The police sergeant referred to the sheriff as 'The Grand Old Clown Politician.' In essence the sheriff of Lake County should...display professionalism, creativity, intellect and energy to improve the county. Not a sheriff who merely wants to take it over. The sheriff should be spending his energies maximizing the use of the budget, not puffing it in order to gain further patronage and build a political infrastructure. The infrastructure in Chicago is called a 'machine.' Such an abuse of power, as we have seen it in Chicago, strangles the county and facilitates cronyism, corruption and intimidation.

"The axiom that 'Absolute Power breeds corruption absolutely' will become more evident as greedy men gain more consolidated strength. This race for sheriff of Lake County is more than a comparison of two men's backgrounds and credentials. It is a test of whether the Chicago Style Political Machine can take hold in Lake County and whether extremely power hungry men, headed by the current sheriff of Lake County, will prevail. This race will expose the danger that looms over us all. Hopefully, such cutesy political circus showbiz antics such as removing a tooth to mirror a celebrity being sworn in as a deputy, will not fake out the voters into misreading what is really happening and what is at stake."

Steinke On Politics

Comment: Well, "Mick," that's the way it is. Two questions for ya, sheriff. Do you think that convicted dope smugglers should be subject to the death penalty? Why do you think that Lake County GOP Chairman Bob Neal confided to me that your county clerk's candidate, Donna-Mae Litwiler, is unqualified for any office? With Lake County's Republicanism and the disarray on the Democratic statewide ticket, the local GOP slate will probably win in the Nov. 4 election. But, wouldn't it be something if "the Magnificent Two" were elected, including Democratic County Clerk Linda Hess and Sander Stagman?

Offer Foreign Study

College of Lake County students will have their first opportunity to spend a semester studying abroad during the spring, 1987 semester. Course work in history, economics, literature, humanities and art will be offered to Illinois community college students in London, England.

This innovative foreign study program is the result of an agreement between a group of Illinois community colleges and Illinois State University. Participating students will be granted transfer credit for completed course work.

Individual classes will be made up of approximately 10 students. Students are required to enroll for a minimum of 12 hours of credit and a maximum of 15 credit hours. There is a required three-credit-hour class in British culture and society.

The semester will run from Jan. 9 through April 25, with spring break scheduled for March 6 through 16. The campus is located in the Kensington area of London, which offers easy accessibility to Parliament and other cultural and governmental centers in London, including the internationally-renowned British Museum.

Classes and field trips during the semester will take place Monday through Thursday, leaving students long weekends for other activities.

The estimated cost for the program is $5,460, including round-trip air fare, meals, lodging, books, field trips, and CLC tuition and fees. No provision for independent student travel is included in this cost.

Only 45 students from across the state will be selected to participate in this program, so interested students are encouraged to apply as soon as possible.

To qualify, students must have completed 15 hours of transfer credit before the spring semester and have earned a minimum grade point average of 2.5 on a 4.0 scale. Students may register between July 21 and Oct. 15.

BUYING A HOME SATELLITE DISH IS COSTLIER THAN YOU THINK.

Before you spend your hard earned money on a satellite receive dish you should learn the facts.

This year popular premium services like HBO and Cinemax will begin scrambling their signals with highly sophisticated electronic encryption devices.

And this new technique won't be limited to just premium services. Many basic cable channels like ESPN, MTV and CNN have announced their intentions to scramble signals.

What does this mean for satellite dish owners?

In addition to paying several thousand dollars for the purchase and installation of a receive dish, it will be necessary to spend hundreds of dollars on descrambling equipment plus pay monthly service fees for each channel received.

Make your decision based on the facts.

Entrepreneurs Targeting Island Lake Market

by SUSAN MONTGOMERY
With the promise of a continued housing boom in the Island Lake area, more and more entrepreneurs see the village as a prime location to establish their own businesses.

Two such individuals who independently set up shop this spring in the former Island Lake Village Hall are Ken Pearson of Village Carpet and Wallpaper and Ray Thoma of Take II Video.

A life-long resident of Island Lake, Pearson got his start installing carpets 10 years ago. His goal to own and operate his own business began a few years ago by displaying and selling merchandise out of his own home.

To accommodate a growing business, Pearson opened the showroom last month. Now, however, the merchandise has expanded to include wall coverings ranging from contemporary to country designs, vinyl goods, wall tiles - just about anything needed to make decorating a one-stop shopping trip.

"People can come here to take care of all their decorating needs," he said. "With all of the building going on in places like the Fox River Shores subdivision, I think there's a need for a store like this."

For his first venture, Pearson said learning the business angles is a continuous process as more needs arise.

A neighbor to Village Carpets, Ray Thoma also sees Island Lake's expanding population as a potential market for video rentals.

With only one other competitor in the village, Take II Video also opened its doors in the former village hall in May.

Both he and his wife, Anne, are no newcomers to starting their own business. Anne, a Wauconda native, previously operated her own fabric shop in Lake Zurich.

The store itself is not only stocked with wide selection of movies, but offers rates competitive with stores in the surrounding Lake Zurich, Crystal Lake and McHenry areas.

Weekend rates for adult films are $2; children's films are $1. On Tuesdays, Thoma offers a two-for-one movie special. While other stores customarily charge a membership fee, Take II Video offers a free membership which includes one free rental a month.

"We also get a lot of free runs, so there's something everyone can enjoy," he said. "With summer coming up and the kids out of school, renting a movie is a great idea for a rainy day, too."

Council Elects Officers

The College of Lake County's General Advisory Council has elected new officers. Virginia Schulte of Highland Park was elected chairperson and Robert Byrne of AMMCO Tools in North Chicago was elected vice-chairperson of the 16-member group.

Schulte has been involved in many educational projects and has served on preschool, elementary, and secondary school boards and committees. She has also served on the Highland Park Human Relations Commission and is a Mobile Meals volunteer.

Vice-chairperson Byrne has also served on numerous community organizations. He has been president of the North Chicago Chamber of Commerce for the past three years and is on the review board of the University of Health Sciences/The Chicago Medical School. Byrne has been actively involved in the Lake/McHenry Counties Toys for Tots project for the past 17 years, serving as honorary chairman for three years.

The general advisory council advises the CLC administration and board of trustees on various issues, including curriculum planning, community needs, financial support and student services.

Members are residents of Lake County and represent the business, industrial, public service and professional segments of the community.

Amateur Operators Prepare For Disaster

The Lake County Radio Amateur Civil Emergency Service (RACES) will be participating in a nationally sponsored exercise simulating disaster operating conditions from 1 p.m., Saturday, June 28 until 1 p.m., Sunday, June 29.

This drill, known as Field Day, will be held in western Lake County at the Cumming's Farm, approximately one mile west of Gilmer Rd. on Schwerman

Rd. The public is invited to attend this demonstration.

On this weekend, thousands of Amateur Radio Operators (Hams) from around the United States and Canada run their emergency stations free of commercial power for a 24-hour period to simulate the worst operating conditions.

This gives Ham operators the real experience necessary to provide communications when normal channels are disrupted or unavailable due to a natural or man-made disaster. This annual event is sponsored by the American Radio Relay League (ARRL).

Visitors are invited to tour the site near the corner of Milton and Schwerman Rds. (0.9 mi. west of Gilmer). Ham operators will be on hand to answer any questions about their equipment, procedures and public service role that Amateur Radio plays in Lake County.

Handicaps No Barrier To Fun

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Larson of Antioch hosted a picnic for 125 children who have multiple physical handicaps. The picnic was sponsored by Sequoit Lodge 827 AF & AM, The Order of the Eastern Star 428, and the 885 Civic Club of Antioch. The children, ranging in age from three to 19, came from four schools: Sally Potter School, Mundelein; Mechanics Grove School, Mundelein; Wauconda High School; and the T.M.H. Satellite of Wauconda. In the photo at left, the children enjoyed hamburgers, hot dogs, and salads in the shade of a grove of trees. At right, they gathered to watch the performance of magician, Dave Kelly, and laugh at the antics of clowns Bonnie Korom and Alice Scheske. Games were played during the afternoon and prizes were given to each child.

A Little Cooperation

A boom of growth in west Lake County has been predicted for years. Events of the last year indicate that the boom has arrived.

Major commercial and residential developments are being planned in Mundelein, Wauconda, Gurnee, Grayslake, Antioch, Round Lake Beach, Lake Villa, and Fox Lake. The differing standards among the various communities make for a patchwork of what is and is not acceptable throughout the area.

Most communities have been reluctant to accept the regional planning studies of the county. Some have been downright hostile. This is because the county has been quick to instruct communities on what they must do to go along with regional goals and slow to offer genuine professional support services to communities that legitimately want to shape their own destinies.

Communities do, and should, have the right to shape their own destinies. But many of the local municipalities have a limited amount of funds from which to hire top-notch professional planners and engineers.

We have a suggestion which would allow villages to maintain local autonomy while getting the best available talent to coordinate regional planning.

Why not set up a regional council of representatives from all the villages of west Lake County? Its purpose would be two-fold:

1) to discuss and coordinate minimum standards for all developers approaching any of the villages represented on the council.

2) to assess dues from each participating village to hire a pool of top quality planners and engineers to provide advice and professional services to any member village during negotiations with developers.

Such a council would have no enforcement powers and would not deny the autonomy of any member village. Rather, it would promote the exchange of information and experience between communities that face many of the same problems and challenges, while providing genuine assistance of a caliber unavailable to villages which go it alone.

Of course, this is Lake County, so it is inevitable that there would be a few fights and scraps among member villages. It is a fact, though, that more developments go wrong than go right. A council that will help raise the odds of developments working to the benefit of all can be nothing but good for everyone who calls Lake County home.

How about it, mayors?

Commuting's New Look

Commuting may never be the same—if the idea of "culture on wheels" as being expounded by the College of Lake County catches on.

CLC is offering work-bound commuters a new dimension in travel to their jobs on both the shore line route and the Fox Lake leg. Commuters with a yen for knowledge will have their choice of a course on Chicago architecture or what's going on in Windy City theater.

Lectures will be conducted on the last car of the CLC train.

Instead of climbing aboard with the morning paper or a cup of coffee and a doughnut, commuters will be sitting down with their note pads and pencils. When the instructor intones, "Class is in session," snoozers and snorers will have to sit upright or move to another car.

Even the homeward trek faces changes with the mobile campus. Instead of pulling out the game board for bridge or a game of gin rummy, or relaxing with an end-of-the-day carry-on picker upper, commuters will be—what else?—doing their homework.

Support The School

by FRED FOREMAN

I read with interest the article concerning the request by residents of Arbor Vista to transfer from the Woodland School Dist. and Warren High School Dist.

As State's Attorney for Lake County, I am in a very good position to judge the type of students graduating from the area high schools because of the many problems that arise in these schools which my office must deal with. Warren Township High School (WTHS) and Libertyville Township High School (LTHS), in my opinion, are both excellent schools. However, since I am a WTHS graduate, let me discuss some of my feelings on this matter.

Commentary

WTHS has gone through a difficult two years. The shock of losing the high school and the election of a new school board, have, in many ways, been traumatic for the community. As a resident of Gurnee, I have watched with interest the controversy over both, the election of the new school board, and the fashion in which they have handled the awesome responsibility of rebuilding the school and providing good programs for the students. WTHS enjoys a long-standing tradition of producing leaders in the community from amongst its graduates. The school has produced such leaders as former Gov. William Stratton; Lake County Sheriff Robert "Mickey" Babcox; Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson; Lake County Circuit Court Clerk Sally Coffelt; former County Board Chairman Robert Depke; and many others too numerous to mention.

Leaders in the legal community, such as Lowell Dixon, associate general counsel for the McDonald's Corp.; Thomas McQueen, former Assistant U.S. Attorney and partner with Jenner & Block, Dennis Porter; an assistant Illinois attorney general; and several other leaders in the legal field, as well as doctors and dentists, such as my neighbor, Dr. Russell Schneider of Gurnee, and Dr. Carl Hagstrom, are among those many people who have graduated from Warren and gone on to return to the Gurnee community to support WTHS and Woodland School. Many of the same teachers who taught these people are still teachers at the schools.

From a personal standpoint, I grew up in Wildwood. My parents still live there. I must admit that when the high school burned down, my family and I considered moving from the Gurnee community into areas in Libertyville, Lake Bluff, and Grayslake. These are all lovely parts of Lake County with good schools and friends. However, from my experience in watching the Warren Twp. community rebuild under these difficult circumstances, my family and I made the decision to purchase property in Warren Twp. and build our new home in the community. My children will transfer from Gurnee Grade School to Woodland this fall. I have great confidence in the people who manage WTHS and Woodland, and the leaders elected to carry the ball during these troublesome times. Although the teachers at WTHS and Woodland School may be a little grayer than they were 20 years ago when they taught me, in my opinion, if they were good enough for me, they're good enough for my children.

The people of Arbor Vista should voice their concern for good schools and good programs. However, good schools, like good children, can only survive when the parents stand by them during tough times.

Editor's Note: Fred Foreman is a member of the Warren Twp. High School Class of 1966. He recently was mentioned as a prospective nominee for Illinois attorney general.

Letter To The Editor:

Blast Challenged

Editor:

It is hard to understand the actions taken by Round Lake Beach police officers in the shooting of a raccoon at 4 a.m. in the morning. To just open fire on a raccoon that was standing by an open hole in the attic of a home directly in line with a neighbor's kitchen window, using a 12-gauge shotgun, seems to be inexcusable. Also to endanger the family living next door, breaking their window and splattering the poor animal all over their kitchen at such an hour, leaves questions in my mind about the men serving your community and its residents.

Surely, policemen have been trained to use better judgement, in dealing with animals as well as with people. Needless to say, this doesn't do much for the reputation of Round Lake Beach.

I hope the actions of these men are taken seriously. Inform officers of the more humane methods of dealing with animals, and at reasonable, daylight hours, not to mention the precautions needed when firing weapons in residential areas.

As tax-paying citizens, we expect men employed as law officers to be able to use better judgement for all living creatures.

Disdains Snobbery

Editor:

I was one of the relatively few Round Lake Beach residents who attended the June 3 meeting of the Round Lake Beach Village Board. I was not particularly happy to see that the vast majority of those attending the meeting were from Lake Villa Twp. While I don't dispute their right to be there, I would have hoped that more Beach residents would have taken the time to show up.

I came to the conclusion that all these people from Lake Villa Twp. really cared about was preventing an annexation by a village from "the wrong side of the tracks." A few too many side comments led me to this conclusion. I have no use for such snobbery. As a Round Lake Beach resident, I went to that meeting to voice my objections to the annexation. As it turned out, I never had the chance to do so, due in large part to the number of "out-of-town" people present. My objections have nothing to do with snobbery and they are as follows:

1) Traffic congestion is already a problem in my view. I have trouble making a left turn onto Rollins Rd. without the aid of a traffic signal. During rush hours I can't even make a right turn onto Rollins Rd. without waiting five minutes. I can imagine what it will be like with your new residents just down the street;

2) The village board still has not explained to my satisfaction how we will solve the water problem. Even if we forget about differences (or lack of) between levels for radium in our drinking water, we still have the problem with the Lake Michigan water. If I understood Mayor Schimpf correctly, the village board is counting on the Lake Michigan water project being completed (as far as we're concerned) before the annexation project goes on line;

3) I am opposed to the recent county-wide trend of eating up farmland and rural acreage simply for the sake of development.

No Column

Bill Schroeder did not write a column this week. His column will be resumed next week.

These developers have only one purpose and that is to make money for the developer. The vast majority of these developers do not even live in the area and have no real interest in any long-range consequences their developments may cause. I have seen no positive change in the quality of life here in the Beach from the most recent development near Rollins Rd. and Cedar Lake Rd. I don't expect to see any positive change from this proposed new development.

The village board should not jump into something this far-reaching without being certain the majority of residents support them.

Letter Was Contrived

Editor:

As a five-year resident of Arbor Vista, the father of three children, and one who wants to afford the best educational opportunity possible to my children, I must refute the accuracy and origin of not only a letter supposedly authored by Arbor Vista children opposed to annexation to Libertyville High School, but also charges expressed by Ed May against the Arbor Vista School Committee.

The letter supposedly authored by Arbor Vista children attending Warren Twp. High School (WTHS), appeared in the June 12 edition of your paper. Prior to its appearance in your paper, the letter was distributed in Arbor Vista. The intent of the letter was to prevent Arbor Vista residents from signing a petition requesting deannexation from Warren schools and annexation to Libertyville schools.

Because of its failed intent among the residents, 165 registered voters have signed the petition to deannex from Warren, another pseudo emotional appeal was attempted by submitting the letter to your paper. Two of the children signing the letter actually attend Woodland School. Another two children who signed the letter will soon move from the subdivision because their house has been sold. Another two children who signed the letter are the children of parents who signed the petition to deannex from WTHS. In short, the total number of households represented by children's signatures on the letter represents fewer than nine households. The letter has surprising similarities to various sheets of supposedly accurate information that has been distributed by the small group of adults opposed to annexation to Libertyville schools. It would appear to some that the children may have been used as "pawns" by some adults.

In the June 19 edition of your paper, your front page featured two articles among others. One talked about a Woodland School Board meeting that was held the past week at which it was decided that Woodland School would reinstitute remedial reading during the 1986-87 school year. At the same meeting it was also voted not to bring back remedial math or the gifted students program.

The other article was authored by Edward May of Arbor Vista, in which he made what I consider to be inaccurate and misleading charges. He claimed the Arbor Vista School Committee has been shown to have "faulty information and facts," but I do not know the name of the individual or individuals that have shown that charge to be true. He said the Arbor Vista Schools Committee "repeatedly ignored printed corrections," but again I do not know the name of the individual with all this errorless information. May went on to charge that "the committee

It's Easy To Get The Most Out Of Ham

Ham has never been a problem at our home. My wife knows how to get the most out of one: a main meal, rind for beans, leftovers for a casserole and sandwiches, and the bone for soup.

I recall when several years ago Anita handed me a gift ham packaged in thin plastic wrap, I had no trouble deducing it was oval, skinless, boneless and weighed 12½ pounds, thanks to the black pencil marking on one corner of the cardboard box in which it came.

The ham was one of those Virginia beauties. Anita cooked it for a party at a friend's house, where we applied the finishing touches: filling the center of sliced pineapple, toothpicked to the ham, with cherries.

Not long ago I learned another way to prepare ham from my in-laws. The grandparents for many years served meals at their boarding house in Montreal. Grandmere fixed the ham country style a la French Canadian.

In addition, the water that the ham boils in is used for cooking the potatoes.

My daughter-in-law did the cooking. I did the eating.

I know maple syrup and beer don't exactly go together, but they sure made the ham tasty.

French Canadian Country Ham

9 to 10 pound ham, skinned
2 teaspoons dry mustard
4 cups water
1 whole onion
2 tablespoons maple syrup
1½ cups beer

Pilot Light GREG MELIKOV

Rub ham with mustard, place in large pot, add rest of ingredients and simmer uncovered 2 hours, adding a little water if needed. Use liquid for boiling potatoes. Keep ham warm until slicing. Serves a crowd.

Pineapple Topping

1 can (20 oz.) pineapple slices
maple syrup to taste
Drain pineapple juice into large fry pan, add syrup and pineapple, simmer until golden and most liquid is absorbed. Serve over sliced ham.

Dogs Are First In Europe

CHARLENE WHITNEY

In May, we left for France because my husband had to go there for business. When he had finished his work, we decided to go to Switzerland, Germany, Holland, Belgium and then back to Paris, France.

One of the first things that I noticed in each country was that dogs took first place with the people. They were allowed nearly everywhere. Of course, most were well behaved and on a leash. Every size, color, and breed of dog could be seen in the stores, hotels, banks, markets, post office, train stations, airport, eating places, etc. It was very common to see a dog getting off a bus, train, or subway with his owner. For small dogs that could fit in a basket or purse, the owner paid no more. If the dog was big enough to need a seat, he was required to have a half-price ticket, the same as a child.

There were dogs in cars, walking and running along side bikes. The people use bikes to get around in most places. The dogs go to work with their owners as well as help do the shopping. Most of the dogs were full breeds and nearly all were in great shape.

The pure breeds born in these countries have a number put in their ear. This is to protect the dogs. There is a high tax charged to keep a dog. So, of course, there are a few owners who change their mind. Sometimes these owners will cut the ear off the dog so it can be dumped without a trace.

If a dog is going to England, it is held in quarantine for six months before the owner can claim it. The reason for this is that England has no rabies. Even if you are a famous person, your dog can't get past the law of waiting six months.

One of our pups from Lassie is now living in Holland. For Meggie, it is a great life and she is always traveling around with her owner from country to country.

Meggie lives with a beautiful cat named Tillie. The cat lets it be known that she is the queen in the 14th floor apartment.

Cats also make the rounds. We saw one in a fancy eating place, in the window. People were enjoying a meal and the cat was enjoying the attention people gave it from the other side of the window.

We saw a couple of cats that had caught mice by the mills in Holland. Cats run the streets in town, too.

In Amsterdam, there is a boat on the canal that houses 150 cats.

These countries are well-known for wonderful, fine cheeses. In Holland, there are many cows, goats and lots of sheep that can be seen everywhere you turn. All of these give milk for cheese. The sheep also give wool.

Pet-Wise

I noticed in France that most cows were white. In Switzerland, they were brown and white and by the time we got to Holland the cows were mostly black and white.

In Switzerland, there were small herds of cows, each with a bell around the neck. I was told that the cows wearing bells were raised only as a hobby.

I didn't see any horses in southern France or Switzerland. By the time we got up to Holland, horses were more common.

Holland is where they have cattle sales every Tuesday. They bid the old way by clapping their hands.

People in Holland do a lot of eel fishing at Volendam. There were many boats out to sea as well as in the canals.

This was duck heaven. With so much water around, I couldn't start to count the ducks and ducklings. The sea gulls and blue herons filled the waters. We also saw beautiful, wild, white swans.

In the cities, pigeons walked along roads and sidewalks in hopes of finding bread crumbs.

In the fields, we could see the farmers working. Several birds followed behind each tractor. Even the sea gulls were following the tractors.

There are many signs in all these countries to watch for: deer, fox, rabbit, and badgers.

We saw a most unusual zoo in Basil, Switzerland. Nearly every type of animal had young. It felt like we were walking in the wilderness.

In Bern, Switzerland, the bear is the symbol of the town. Bern has also become famous for the bear pits. There are about three good size pits with a total of 12 bears. People would buy food to throw to the bears. Of course, the bears did their own cute tricks to win the treats.

We found the trip rewarding and I found it to be a place filled with animals of all kinds.

Cancer Can Be Defeated With Early Detection

Despite years of public education, one of the least understood facts about cancer is that it can be defeated or controlled through early detection. Preventive medicine and regular precautionary examination are essential, yet it is human nature to "put it off" and "do it tomorrow."

To encourage women, in particular, to understand the need to participate in a program of regular breast examination, the Robert R. McCormick Clinics at the University of Health Sciences/The Chicago Medical School have embarked upon a unique program through which women are asked to help defeat breast cancer by "pairing up."

According to Sharon Weinstein, clinics administrator, the idea is that, by encouraging a woman to bring a friend, relative, neighbor or loved one along, both will be examined and diagnosed for only $75. Moreover, says Weinstein, they will have access to the facility's new Thomson-CGR Mammograph, which is state-of-the-art technology—equipment which can alert a woman to potential danger before she is even aware of it.

Another highly significant part of this offer by the Robert R. McCormick Clinics is that its ultra-modern Breast Care Center, unlike a mammography clinic, deals with the whole spectrum of diseases of the breast. Its full range of services, provided with a special caring attitude by the center's experienced team, under the direction of Dr. Margaret Levy, provides detection, diagnosis and treatment and enables any woman to understand and deal with breast disease.

"One of the reasons we're offering this special program now," says Weinstein, "is our belief that women will often do things together in pairs that they will put off doing alone—especially when it is something as distasteful as facing up to the realities of breast cancer. Yet, the point is that, through early detection, the recovery rate for breast cancer has risen to over 90 percent.

"We can help women to overcome this reluctance to have the test done if they will only give us cooperation," says Weinstein. "In essence, what we're suggesting is that women "pair up" to beat breast cancer and, by doing so, they can take advantage of a cost-saving that amounts to more than half the normal charge for one mammography exam, let alone two."

"Nobody," says Weinstein, "wants to be a statistic. One out of every 11 women develop breast cancer. If they'll team up with us, we can help all women beat those odds. All they have to do to make an appointment is to call (312) 473-HELP. We'll do the rest."

Schedule Sunrise Programs

The staff naturalists of the Edward L. Ryerson Conservation Area, Deerfield, will lead two unusual sunrise morning programs, June 29 or July 6, at 6:30 a.m.

The Sunrise Stalking programs held for ages 12 to adult will include a walk in Ryerson Woods to discover some hidden wildlife habitats. Possible discoveries may include heron roosts, woodchuck burrows or foxes dens.

Groups will meet at the visitors center parking lot.

They are asked to wear clothing that will blend into the natural environment to increase chances of observing the elusive inhabitants of Ryerson Woods. Fees are 50 cents for Lake County residents and $1 for out of county.

Donald Strenger, president of the Lake County Forest Preserve Dist. stated, "The programs offer limited attendance since small groups are conducive to spotting wildlife. In addition, early morning quiet hours, tranquility and sounds of the forest will interest a lot of participants. Call (312) 948-7750 for required reservations."

The Edward L. Ryerson Conservation Area is located on Riverwoods Rd. (a northern extension of Sanders Rd.) north of Deerfield Rd. and south of Rte. 22, Half Day Road. The preserve is open every day from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and admission is free.

Q. How is the swing plane determined?

A. At address imagine a line being drawn up from the ball to touch your shoulder and extend further out behind you. This is your swing plane and it will vary as you stand more upright or bend lower over the ball at address. Whether your stance is more or less upright, the important element here is to maintain a hand and arm position during the backswing that will be within this already determined plane. The diagram shows correct position as well as hands and arms too high and too low. You will need someone to work with you on this until you have established good position at the top of your backswing. Remember too that in the proper position the shaft of your club will be parallel to your target line. So now as you practice get that good full shoulder turn and keep your hands and arms in their correct position so that you are able to swing down freely through the ball.

Carmel Standouts Star Defensively

Rod Whittier and Rodney Lambright both turned in solid defensive performances at an all-star game between East Suburban Catholic Conference stars and Mid-Suburban stars.

"Both represented Carmel very well," Larry Whittier said.

Rod Whittier contributed seven points and Lambright three in the contest. The Mid-Suburban stars won in double overtime, 136-131.

"Rodney was outstanding on defense," Whittier said.

Whittier said when the duo was in the game, the ESCC team turned a 15-point deficit to a seven-point lead.

Grant Pony Nine On Top

The Grant Twp. Pony League team got off to a strong start, winning five of six games.

Then on June 11, the team faced Grayslake and Grayslake won 6-4.

Grayslake gave up only four hits on a triple and single by Randy Gomez and a double by losing pitcher Jim Timblin.

In other games, at Gurnee: Grant won 16-2 as Gomez had an unassisted double play, two singles and a double. Tony Pintozi was 3 for 4 with a single, double and a triple. Jason Amedio was 3 for 4 reaching on three singles. Jamie Maiworm was credited with three hits, two triples and a single. Other members of the team, Jon Ferrigan, John Neumann and Ricky T-warski had singles.

The team's season started slowly with a 4-2 loss to North Chicago. The team, now, though, has a commanding lead.

Other results:

Game two: Grant beat Round Lake 25-11 as Pintozi was the winning pitcher.

Game three, at Zion: Grant won 8-1 with John Neumann picking up the win.

Game four, home against Grayslake, Grant won 6-1 as Timblin had a three-hitter. Game five, home against Gagewood, won 17-0 over Gagewood as Jon Ferrigan had a one-hit shutout.

Other wins included a 25-2 drubbing of Round Lake in the sixth game as Neumann picked up another win. Timblin had a three-run single.

The championship series is scheduled for July 7 at Grant if it should win its division.

Travel

State Of Wisconsin Known By Many Fames

Wisconsin is known by many fames...a dairy land, fine fishing, great scenery and lots of water. Dairy also means fine cheeses...there are more than 80 locations that specialize in cheese. Closest to us are The Cheese Box and Fromagerie Wine and Cheese Shops in Lake Geneva, and the Swiss Cheese Shop in Monroe, Wis., alleged to be the Swiss Cheese Capitol of the U.S.

Sometimes called America's Little Switzerland, Green County will be celebrating its County Fair dates, July 23-27, and cheeses of all descriptions will be served along with the ethnic music, dancers and singers representing the Swiss and other family homelands.

An air of adventure will be prominent the following week, Aug. 1-8, when the 35th Annual EAA (Experimental Aircraft Assn.) International Convention and Sport Aviation exhibition will be held at Wittman Airfield in Oshkosh, Wis. This flyin by experimental and private aircraft is the biggest in the world and internationally attended by aviation enthusiasts and their families, offering something for everyone.

In a giant flying reunion, all kinds of people come together to share a common bond. No where else will so many planes be displayed on ground and in the air.

This year, visitors have an opportunity to view the new Pioneer Airport, constructed and equipped for planes that flew 50 or more years ago...and they'll be there, too, still flying. The Pioneer Airport is adjacent to the Air Museum, where over 80 full sized aircraft of the past, present and future, all experimental, are on display.

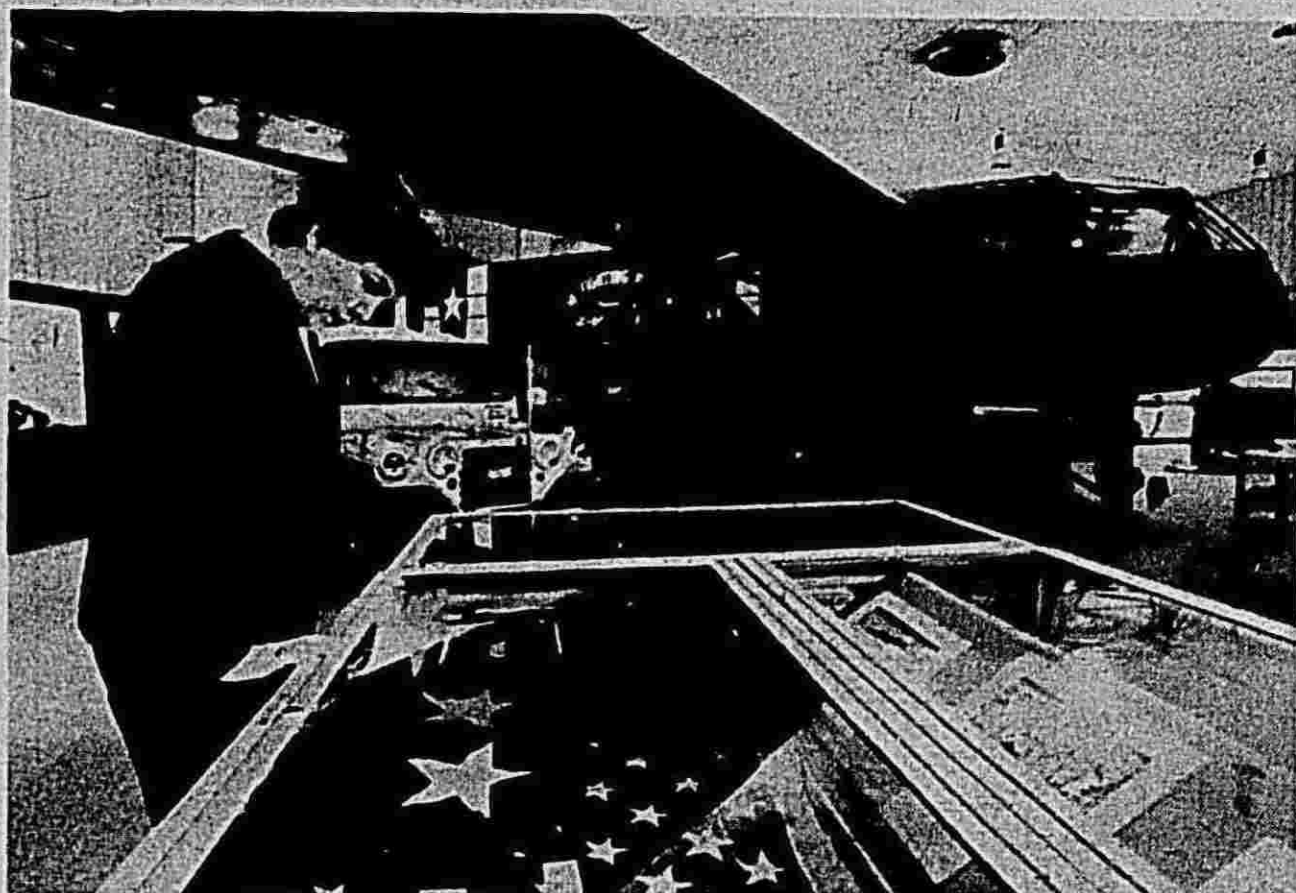

Oshkosh opens every source of living facility for the thousands that annually attend this popular, ever growing collection of experimental and practical aircraft. Some are supporting enthusiasts, while others are tourists seeking something thrilling and unusual. EAA details are available from Chuck Larsen, educational director, Wittman Field, Oshkosh, Wis., 54903... (414) 426-4800. For general information call toll free to the state tourism office at 1-800-ESCAPES.

Should time permit, a mix of air and water may be enjoyed by a trip on Valley Queen II, Wisconsin's largest paddle boat. This 100-footer can accommodate up to 300 passengers as it tours historic Fox River and Lake Winnebago. The Queen is berthed at Pioneer Inn and Marina in Oshkosh, about three hours from Chicago. It has a seven-day cruising schedule, some with food. Call (414) 231-2131 for details.

Also take time to visit the world famous Oshkosh B'Gosh overall market. Now, a new line is showing up...Oshkosh, Oh My Gosh!...maternity clothing.

Continuing northwest into Minnesota, Faribault is about 50 miles south of the Twin Cities, on Interstate 35. Rolling hills, sandstone bluffs, winding rivers and picturesque lakes make it a popular traveler destination, which it has been since 1826 when Alexander Faribault, a French Canadian, began fur trading with the Sioux and Dakota Indians. Both Roberts and French Lake offer resort

Proud History

The proud history of the 101st Airborne Division (Air Assault) is documented in the Don F. Pratt Memorial Museum at Fort Campbell, the division's home base on the Tennessee-Kentucky border, near Clarksville, Tenn. Among the memorabilia are airplanes, helicopters, weapons and exhibits detailing the role of the 101st Airborne in World War II, Korea and Vietnam.

Tips For Trips With Kids

Traveling a distance with the kids this summer? Discovery Toys has some helpful hints that will help save parents' sanity. The most important element of a successful trip is planning ahead. Remember: children have short attention spans and will need lots of different activities to make it through the trip.

If possible, start the trip at night so the children can sleep. Then in the morning, let the children amuse themselves for as long as possible.

Remember to stop often. Children aren't used to the limited activity they get in confined areas. Stop at those interesting attractions or just stop - let the kids run around.

Pack separate bags for those "I'm hungry, I'm thirsty, I'm bored" times. A bag with long handles which can slip over the headrest towards the back seat is a good way to keep everything handy and neat. The snack bag should contain low sugar snacks (remember, don't give them any more energy than they already have), box packs of juices, a pumping flask of good old plain water (it's amazing how good it tastes on vacation), non-crumby foods, and sandwiches.

The activity bag should contain large crayons, paper, scissors, a small bed-type tv tray, books, cards, tape recorder and cassettes, compact games, puppets, favorite dolls and stuffed animals, and activity coloring books. Listening to pre-recorded favorite stories or songs is a soothing activity for children. Plus, they can tape their own impressions of the big trip.

Bring along the kids' favorite toys. And buy a few new toys for surprises. Don't forget an atlas to let the children chart the trip's progress, and draw pictures of various landmarks.

Remember those simple car games people used to play? Kids still love games like I Spy where everyone tries to guess what someone has seen. Begin a story and have each person add onto it. Have a scavenger hunt using a pre-planned list of what to look for. Look for different colors, shapes, and letters of the alphabet.

And don't forget a bag for the parents' filled with those essentials, such as portable wet wipes, paper towels, small blankets for shielding the sun, tissues, plastic trash bags, a first aid kit, a change of clothes for each child, and if everything is planned right, a small pillow and your favorite book! Have a pleasant trip!

Posh "land yachts," economical mini RVs, plus free travel information for summer vacationers will be on display June 27, 28 and 29 during a special motorhome vacation fair held at The Manufacturers Factory Outlet Mall in St. Charles.

Sponsored by Motor Vacations Unlimited of Elgin, one of the Midwest's largest RV sales, rental and service centers, the three-day motorhome show will highlight a selection of super luxury and mini RVs that will be displayed outdoors at the newly opened Old Piano Factory, Chicagoland's first and only brand name factory

Payne Hopes Meeting Will Bring Answers

A Lake County board member is hoping a meeting between officials hoping to build a racetrack in Old Mill Creek and local officials will bring more answers.

Dist. 3 Rep. Samuel Payne Sr., whose district covers the Old Mill Creek area, said he is hoping for a meeting in late July between officials of Arlington Park owner Richard Duchossois' interests.

"We want to know more of what's in the fine print. We don't know any more than what was handed out with the brochures at the courthouse," Payne said.

Payne said the meeting would be a committee of the whole session around July 24.

Payne said the meeting would make it easier for local officials to answer residents' questions.

Early this month, Duchossois announced he is planning to build a 1,700-acre development near Old Mill Creek to replace fire-ravaged Arlington Park.

The board member said everyone will be invited to the meeting once the definite date is announced.

The development, whose future still hinges on tax breaks from the state legislature, would include: a 450-acre race track, a hotel-motel and office complex; an equestrian area; an 18-hole golf course; single-family homes and specialty stores.

According to race track proponents, the public benefits would include: direct private investment of $674 million; 3,900 construction jobs over 10 years; 7,000 permanent jobs a year; $10.5 million a year in local tax revenues and $1.4 million a year in state tax revenues.

Pet Of The Week

Laurie Behrens of Oakwood Knolls in Antioch says that her dog, Mollie is the mailman's best friend. According to Behrens, service people love Mollie because she is always friendly to them and insists on being petted before they leave. She says that even when the mailman drives by off duty, he waves at the friendly collie. Sitting in front of Mollie is Rebecca, a child that Behrens babysits.

Clerk Hess In Favor Of Notary Modernization

Lake County Clerk Linda Hess says the state has done an important public service by modernizing the Notary Public Law that was first passed in 1872. "We think the new law, which becomes effective July 1, is a good one," explained Hess, "because it spells out the duties of the notary, and it is designed to prevent fraud and forgery. It also places more stringent requirements on notaries, which we expect will reduce the number of notaries in Lake County and statewide."

There are about 185,000 notaries in Illinois, with more than 2,100 in Lake County.

The new law has raised the fee an applicant pays when applying to the secretary of state for the notary commission. The fee had been $5 and will change to $25 on July 1.

"In addition," said Hess, "notaries must record their commissions with the county clerk's office. And this must be done within a prescribed time frame or it is sent back to the secretary of state's office where it will be cancelled."

The state has also raised the fees for recording the commission with the county clerk. Recording the commission by mail will cost $10 and recording the commission in person in the county clerk's office will cost only $5.

"Further, the bond requirement for the notary has been increased to $5000 (from $1000), and the bonding must be done by a qualified bonding/insurance company approved by the state department of insurance," she continued.

"The old notary public law needed to catch up with the modern business world, too," Hess explained. "Notaries have always used an embossed seal to certify documents, but the embossed seal does not reproduce on today's copying machines."

The new law requires notaries commissioned after July 1 to use a rubber stamp in place of the raised seal.

"We expect the new law will raise a few questions and we are available to answer them at (312) 360-6670," Hess concluded.

Saving money by using less gas

THE UNHANDYMAN'S GUIDE TO CAULKING AND WEATHERSTRIPPING.

One of the best ways to save money on energy costs is to make improvements on your home that will help you use less energy.

One of the easiest and most worthwhile things you can do is minimize your heating and cooling loss by caulking and weatherstripping.

If you live in a typical home and install caulking and weatherstripping, you can trim your energy cost for heating by up to $40 per year. You'll recover your investment in two years or less, and after that it's money in the bank.

Caulking and weatherstripping your house requires a minimum of tools, time and know-how. Even not-so-handy homeowners can easily handle this job. You use caulk to plug air leaks outside and weatherstripping inside to seal the openings around doorways and windows.

"LET'S TALK CAULKING"

First, survey your house from the outside. Look for gaps in the exterior walls where you need caulk. Note any missing or sun dried caulk especially on the south side of your house.

Here's where to look:
■ Around all window and door frames
■ Around exhaust fan outlets (bath, kitchen or laundry)
■ Around window air conditioners
■ Around holes cut for hose faucet, wires and pipes
■ Around the chimney
■ Around lighting fixtures
■ Where masonry and siding meet.

Caulk is a flexible sealant designed to fill cracks and gaps in fixed joints of a house. One tube will fill about 25 feet of a narrow 1/4" crack or two small windows. In home centers and hardware stores you'll find a variety of caulks to choose from, but don't let that scare you. Ordinary latex caulk is easy to use and cleanup, and a good bet for the first time user. Silconized caulk is more expensive, but it lasts considerably longer. If you can afford to use a better grade of caulking you won't have to re-do the job every few years.

Check the label to see if the caulk can be painted, how long it takes to dry, the type thinner recommended for cleanup and what the temperature requirements are. Don't forget to purchase a caulk gun, unless you purchase caulk that comes in pressurized cans. Caulk guns usually cost only a few dollars.

1. Clean out the joint thoroughly and let dry. 2. Cut the tube tip off at a 45 degree angle making a 1/4" opening. 3. With the tube in the gun, break the seal with a nail. 4. Place the nozzle in the crack and squeeze the trigger while pushing the tube away from you to fill the gap. 5. Fill deep cracks with several beads of caulk. 6. Clean up immediately and put a nail in the tube nozzle to save for re-use.

WEATHERSTRIPPING—THE INDOOR SOLUTION

Weatherstripping is the best way to stop air leaks.

To detect hidden drafts inside, make your own distress flag by taping a piece of tissue to a pencil. On a breezy day use this detector to find air leaks by holding it near window sills and doorways. If the tissue moves, you've located a spot that needs weatherstripping. Here's where to look for drafts: ■ Around all windows and door frames ■ Space around pulleys in double-hung windows ■ At electrical wall outlets and switches in exterior walls ■ Around heating registers.

Weatherstripping comes in many forms. For instance there are threshold weatherstripping materials designed to fill the gap between the bottom of a door and floor. For doors and windows, there's spring metal or brass weatherstripping that's inexpensive and effective. Self-adhesive plastic weatherstripping is more expensive but easier to install. As a handy temporary sealer, you can use caulking rope or cord.

For electrical outlets and light switches, low cost foam rubber gaskets can be used to seal gaps. And, in your garage molded stripping is available to seal your garage door.

Installation is easy and you'll find instructions with each of these products. Metal weatherstripping is easily cut with a heavy scissors or tin snips. Plastic is cut with a knife or scissors. Before applying adhesive-backed weatherstripping, clean the surface behind the glue for maximum grip.

NOW'S THE TIME.

Now's a perfect time to get to work on projects like caulking and weatherstripping. So why not start now?

It'll be money in your pocket, when next winter rolls around.

Senior Group Expands Telecare Services

The Chain Of Lakes Senior Services of Antioch is instituting a three-month program offering its telecare service seven days a week. Below are commonly asked questions and answers about the program.

WHAT IS TELECARE?

Telecare is a check-up service putting you in daily telephone contact with people who care and who are trained to help in an emergency. Telecare reassurance can be a comfort for people who live alone or otherwise find themselves in a position where they are unable to call for needed help.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Any person who is age 60 or over and wishes to receive this service is eligible. You do not need to live alone or be ill in order to become a telecare client.

WHAT IS THE COST?

There is no charge. Chain of Lakes Senior Services has a dedicated staff of volunteers who give generously of their time to make this service possible. Donations, however, are always appreciated.

WHEN CAN I CALL OR BE CALLED?

A call will be made to you each morning, seven days a week, between 9 and 11 a.m. or you can call one of our offices during this time.

WHAT IS EXPECTED OF ME?

That you be at home to receive our call. By registering with us, you have placed a certain responsibility for your welfare on others. Our concern is that you are well and not in need of help. If you do not answer our call, we will arrange to have someone check on you.

WHO WILL COME TO MY HOUSE IF I DO NOT ANSWER MY TELEPHONE?

Whoever you designate when we enroll you: relatives, friends, neighbors, or if necessary, the police or rescue squad.

HOW WILL THEY ENTER MY HOUSE?

Only an emergency would permit anyone to break into your house. It would be wise to inform your friends or relatives that you have listed with us as to how to enter your home in case of emergency and inform our agency.

WHAT DO I DO IF I NEED TO GO OUT OR WILL BE AWAY FOR A FEW DAYS?

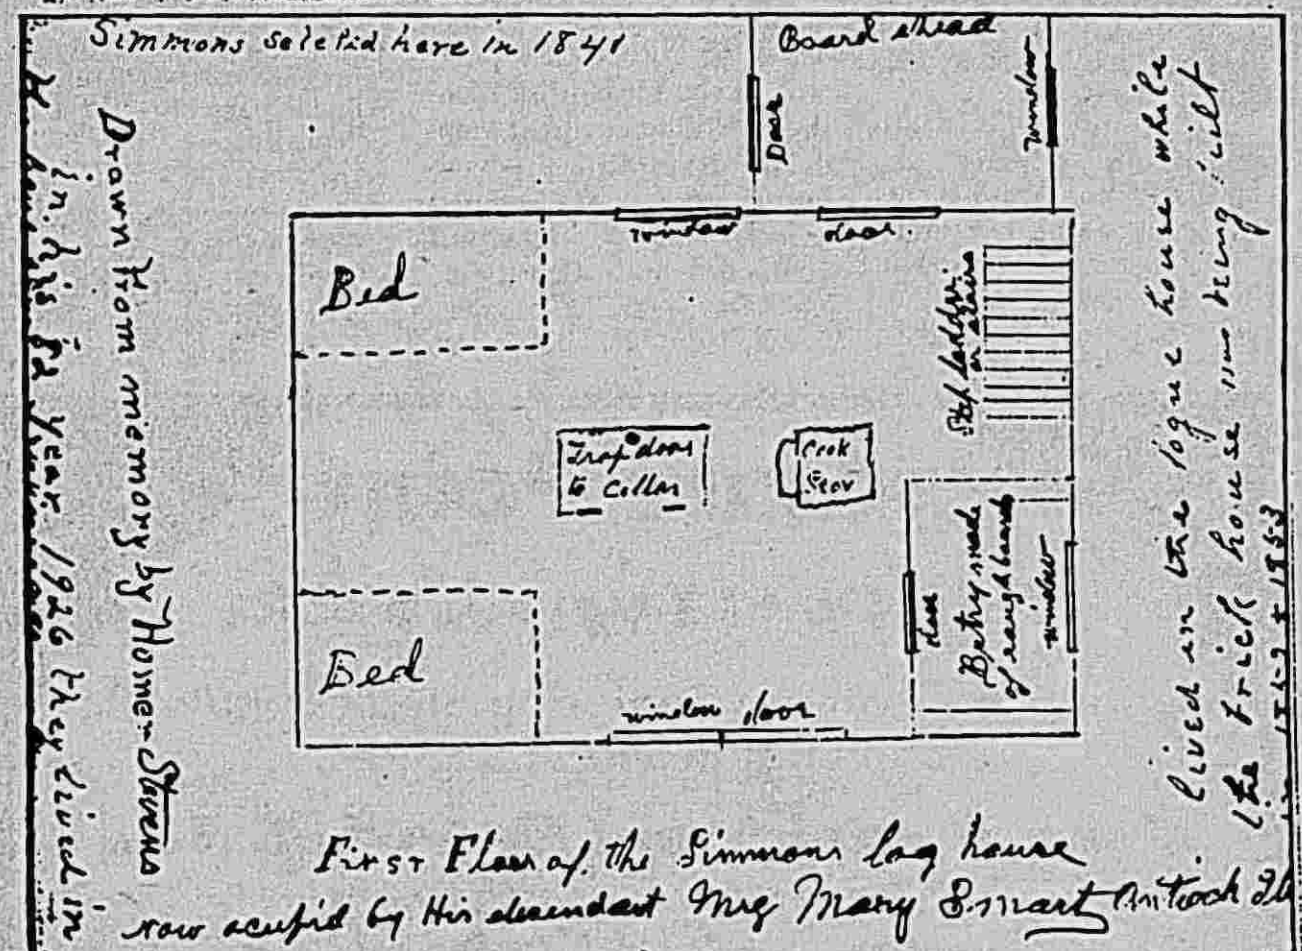

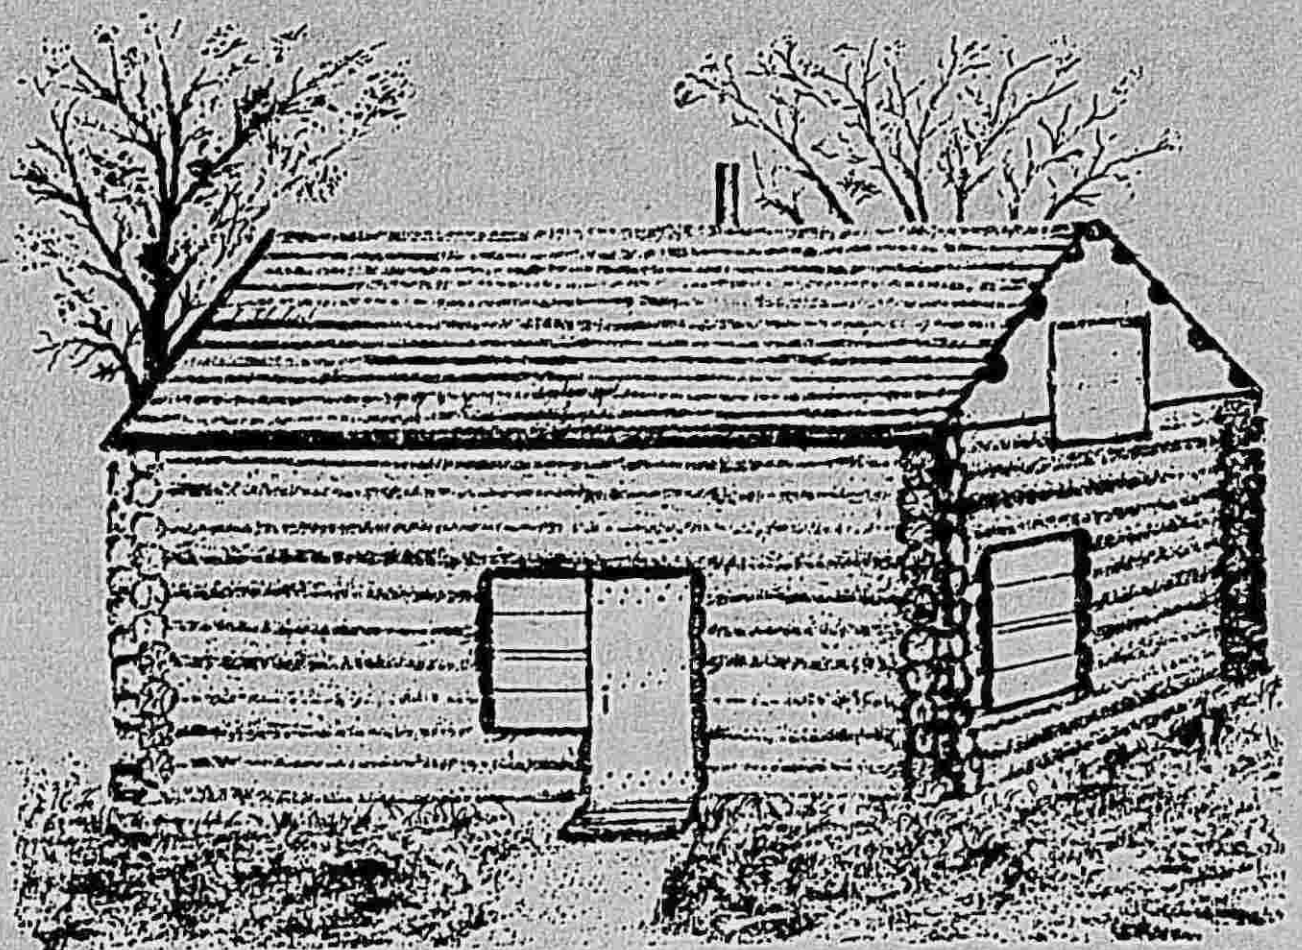

Contact our office at (312) 395-5161 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. if you won't be home to receive our call. If you can't contact us personally, have a friend do it for you. If you will be gone for longer than a day, let us know when you wish to have the service resumed.

WHAT IF I DON'T WANT TO BE CHECKED UP ON?

You can still receive friendly calls from us. These calls are made at a more leisurely pace. We do not take emergency procedures with these calls and will not call again the same day.

HOW DO I DISCONTINUE THE SERVICE?

Call (312) 395-5161 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. and ask to have your name removed from our files.

The Origin Of The Country House

The crayon drawing of the original log cabin (top) and the pencil sketch of its floor plan were done by Homer Stevens in 1926. The cabin was built in 1841 on the site where the Country House now sits and was torn down in 1852 when a regular house was built, some of which remains as part of the restaurant. Stevens was an orphan who moved to Antioch with the Smart family in 1841. The original Smarts who settled there were direct maternal ancestors of Bill Brook.—drawings courtesy of Bill Brook.

She's A Grand Old Flag

The Fourth of July Parade is one of the highlights of the summer in Antioch. During last year's parade, the Antioch Chapter of AARP sponsored a float depicting Betsy Ross sewing the original American flag. This year's Fourth of July celebration will begin on Thursday evening, July 3, with the Miss Antioch pageant and entertainment at Williams Park.

Hillview Seeks Delay Of Scheduled Appeal

by CHARLES JOHNSTON

In the latest round of a battle that has gone on since last Sept., attorneys for Hillview Farms owner Arnold May have filed a motion asking for a continuance of the hearing scheduled before the Ill. Pollution Control Board in early July.

Hillview had earlier been turned down twice by the Ill. Environmental Protection Agency in its bid to get its permit to accept sludge renewed. After the two denials, Hillview filed an appeal for each.

Representatives of the Ill. Atty. General's office have maintained that the appeals are improper. According to assistant attorney general, Matt Dunn, May had two options after the first denial: he could re-apply or he could appeal but he could not do both.

Still, at this point the pollution control board is set to hear the appeal.

Atty. Donald Stinespring, who has served as legal counsel for the citizen's group which opposes issuance of a permit, said that May cited two major reasons why he should be granted the continuance:

1) May never concerned himself with the first appeal because he said he had been assured by representatives of the IEPA that if he would correct the deficiencies noted in the first denial letter, he would be granted a permit upon re-application.

2) The attorney general's office had filed a motion to dismiss the first appeal and May did not expect that it would actually go to hearing.

Stinespring responded by pointing out that it has been obvious for several months that the first appeal would, indeed, go to hearing.

"What has he been doing these last few months and why isn't he prepared?" Stinespring asked. Answering his own question, he suggested that the purpose of the appeal is simply to draw out the appeals process.

"As long as the final resolution is pending, he can continue to accept sludge," Stinespring noted. "I think that he is afraid he will lose on appeal and have to shut down. So, naturally, it is to his advantage to draw the process out as long as possible."

Women's Aglow To Meet In Bank's Community Room

Since March of 1983, the Antioch chapter of Women's Aglow Fellowship has been meeting in the Community Room of the State Bank of Antioch with a different speaker every month, teaching from the Bible or giving personal testimony of the power of God as evidenced in their lives.

In 1967, four women from Seattle, Wash., seeking Christian Fellowship and a fuller life in the Lord, began Women's Aglow Fellowship. Today, it is an international organization with over 2,000 local fellowships on six continents.

The stated focus for Women's Aglow International and the local Antioch chapter is:

—to acquaint women with their lord and savior, Jesus Christ, and the empowering of the Holy Spirit.

Cum Laude

Scott Poulter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Poulter of Antioch, was among 412 candidates awarded degrees during spring commencement ceremonies at St. Norbert College. He graduated cum laude with a degree in business administration.

—to encourage women to seek God's guidance in their daily lives.

—to provide encouragement and fellowship.

—to develop spiritual maturity through a deeper knowledge of God's word.

Women's Aglow also strongly encourages each woman to be a member of and to participate in the activities of her local church.

Antioch Women's Aglow meets the first Tuesday of every month at the State Bank of Antioch's Community Room at 7:30 p.m. There is no charge and reservations are not necessary. Refreshments are available after the meeting.

The speaker on July 1 will be Ann Gosh, who is currently writing an autobiography entitled 'Mother, Mommy, Where Are You?' She will speak about God's power to deliver from alcoholism and its effects on the entire family and how God healed her from the inner wounds of child abuse.

Graduates

Tim Hartokolis, son of Louis and Anne Hartokolis of Antioch, graduated from the Bible theology program at Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

Announce Seniors Transportation

The Chain of Lakes Senior Services will provide transportation to the doctor, dentist, etc. by appointment. Call (312) 395-5161 between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

The following is the regular transportation schedule for the month of July:

July 3, shopping in Antioch; July 7, shopping at Round Lake; July 10, shopping in Antioch; July 11, garage sales; July 14, shopping at Lakehurst; July 17, shopping in Antioch; July 18, shopping at Belvidere; July 21, shopping at Hawthorn; July 24, shopping in Antioch; July 28, shopping at Round Lake; July 31, shopping in Antioch.

Communities To Celebrate July 4

by JAMES N. MANTZOROS
Towns across Lake County will be capturing the Spirit of '76 by taking parts in parades followed by entertainment, rides, games and food.

Then, come dusk, the inevitable fireworks displays will take over, only in turn to be followed by street dancing or listening to band concerts.

This year, however, the July 4 celebration will have a double meaning — being in addition, the celebration of the restoration of the "Lady of the Harbor," better-known as the Statue of Liberty.

"No doubt the noise of exploding cannon crackers will obscure some of the meaning of the Fourth of July," as Harold Blake Walker once described it.

The celebration will remind our citizens, and especially the immigrants among us, that we enjoy what is called "freedom from oppression."

In researching the various aspects of the Fourth of July, we came upon a very little-known fact — that only one president of the United States was born on Independence Day. It was none other than the "silent" Calvin Coolidge.

Coolidge made the famous remark, "I do not choose to run (in 1928)," and left the "Crash of '29" and the Great Depression to Herbert Hoover.

Some towns in Lake County will confine their celebrations to only one day — July 4, while others will take the opportunity to combine it with community days.

MUNDELEIN

The Town of Mundelein will celebrate from July 1 through July 6. Starting Tuesday, July 1, at 7 p.m., will be the Little Miss Mundelein Preliminaries at Mundelein High School; Wednesday, July 2, the carnival will open at 6:30 p.m. at Seymour and Courtland; Thursday, July 3, a rock-and-roll dance featuring Presence will be added; and Friday, July 4, calls for a full day of events starting the day at 9 a.m. with water fights and ending with fireworks at 9 p.m.

Saturday calls for a round of events from 11 a.m. until 7:30 p.m., featuring the crowning of the queens. Sunday, July 6, will begin the decorating of bikes and end at 5:30 p.m. with the drum and bugle corps contest.

FOX LAKE

According to Pete Jakstas, who usually makes the arrangements for the July 4 celebration, Mineola Bay will be closed to boat traffic, and before an assemblage of 2,200 boats and other spectators who will watch from other vantage points on land, more than $5,000 of fireworks will be set off. This will be part of a three-day celebration.

GURNEE

We have been advised that because of the proximity of the village to Great America Theme Park, which will put on its usual display of fireworks, the village will confine its celebration to Gurnee Days, held in August.

LAKE VILLA

Lake Villa's celebration will be limited to Lindentfest, also held in August.

ANTIOCH

The July 4 celebration will be held at Williams Park between 7:30 and 8:30 p.m. The village will sponsor the event, which is underwritten by the Lions Club. The festivities are under the direction of the parks and recreation department. The celebration will begin July 3 with the Miss Antioch contest. According to Glenda Tomaschik, park director, the annual parade will last about one-and-a-half hours.

ISLAND LAKE

Island Lake's third year of July 4 celebrating will be sponsored by the Island

Lake Lions Club. The fireworks display will be held at St. Johns Lutheran Church on Rte. 176.

WAUCONDA

No celebration is planned for Wauconda. Michael A. Prate, former president of the Wauconda Chamber of Commerce, said that two years ago efforts were made to revive the festivities. Now, however, plans for the event have been aborted because of lack of insurance.

GREAT LAKES NAVAL TRAINING STATION

Spokesmen for the Naval installation say the July 4 celebration takes the place of Family Day and is open only to Navy personnel and their families.

The event will "kick off" the base's 75th anniversary celebration.

HOROSCOPE

Aries (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Minor snags can't keep the Lamb from enjoying a wonderful holiday weekend. An event that was planned for later in the month happens earlier than expected.

Taurus (Apr. 20-May 20) It's a plus period for Bovines. A positive progress report on your goals follows a wonderful holiday weekend shared with your family and friends.

Gemini (May 21-June 20) Enjoy this holiday weekend knowing that you'll soon get some good news that helps dispell doubts on a once "iffy" business prospect.

Cancer (June 21-Jul. 20) Someone from the past wants to become part of your holiday plans. Weigh your decision carefully. The feelings of others are also involved.

Leo (Jul. 21-Aug. 22) What a wonderful time for social lions to roar. Holiday cheer becomes infectious. New acquaintances become new friends. Romance flourishes.

Virgo (Aug. 22-Sept. 22) You find many of the answers you've been seeking this week. You can now enjoy the holiday more than you thought you would. The picture continues to brighten.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Holiday plans turn out better than you expected as friends and family pitch in to help. Some knotty problems are soon untangled.

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21) Take time out to enjoy the holiday. Then reexert the efforts you've been making to unsmarl some snags that turned up in your new project.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Holiday festivities help you relax. Later, you find that clearer explanations make it easier to plan new goals. Keep your aim steady and fixed on target.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Enjoy the holiday then sit down with the family and set a new course to avoid the obstacles that threaten to scuttle your domestic relationships.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) The holiday spirit spills over into next week as well when others rush to support your position. Things go easier for everyone around you.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) A bit of holiday confusion only adds to the good fun you share with your loved ones. Encourage everyone to reach out to one another. Renew old friendships.
